I'd like to take a moment to recognize Sergeant Chris Heaps not only for the arrest of one of the suspects gaining entry to unlocked vehicles on 1/14/2022, but also for an act of kindness. On 1/28/2022, Sgt. Heaps encountered a motorist that was stranded due to hazardous conditions brought about by an ice/snow event. Sgt. Heaps quickly learned that the motorist is a recent organ transplant recipient and needed medication. Sgt. Heaps did not hesitate to offer assistance. He transported the motorist, his spouse and their dog to their residence and then assisted with picking up medication. Sgt. Heaps went above and beyond to help someone in need. This dedication to service is a trait that we value and hope that all members of our police department exemplify this every day. Thank you, Sgt Heaps for providing outstanding service to the community.
