Mayor Williams noted the written report and gave the floor to Chief Laun.

Unfinished Business

Mayor Williams started the conversation about the 5-way. Andrew Klump and Daniel Stephen presented a couple of documents showing the plans for the 5-way and an estimated cost between $13K to $15K. The council agreed to move ahead with the plan. Mayor presented a picture of an entrance sign for the approval for the entrance at Eagle Pass and Audubon Parkway. The estimated cost should be between $2.5K to $3.5K. There were conversations about the remaining sidewalks repairs.

The donation to the Fire Department was discussed.

New Business

Mayor Williams presented the minutes from September to be approved. Andrew Klump made a motion to approve the minutes. Michael Hartman seconded, and the motion passed with 4 in favor (Andrew Klump, Austin Schwenker, Michael Hartman and Daniel Stephen in favor) (Madeline Bozeman and Elyse Shackleton absent).

Mayor's report

The mayor made comments about the festivals. He stated Halloween is still set for Monday. Mayor wants to hold an auction to sell the street signs and some additional items from the garage. The council has decided to not hold a meeting in December as there is no business to discuss. There was a suggestion to move the November meeting to an earlier date. A Holiday celebration was suggested.

Closing Public Comment

Mr. Ebert Haegele candidate for Circuit Court Judge came and introduced himself and asked for everyone's vote.

Laura Miller, 3141 Preston Highway (Vic's Classic Bike) - Ms. Miller wanted to know who will be the next mayor, because would like to start the bike ride back up that they did before Covid hit.

Andrew Klump made a motion to adjourn. Austin Schwenker seconded, and the motion passed with 4 in favor (Andrew Klump, Austin Schwenker, Michael Hartman and Daniel Stephen in favor) (Madeline Bozeman and Elyse Shackleton absent).
